Miss Evelyn Gorup,
Corresponding Secretary
International Relations Club
College Misericordia
Dallas, Pennsylvania

Dear Miss Gorup:

Your letter dated 30 October 1952 arrived here during the temporary absence from Washington of General Smith.

I know he will understand the interest that caused you to write to him, and I hope you will appreciate the reasons for his policy of not engaging in correspondence on individual inquiries that are not related to his current duties as Director of Central Intelligence.

Sincerely yours,

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
